

SOME HELPFUL LINKS AND WEBSITES FOR FURTHER RESEARCH:

<http://www.genforum.genealogy.com/vawter>

Message boards and discussion.

<http://www.heritagequestonline.com>

Check with a library in your state for the password.

Has most census images.

More than 22,000 genealogies & histories with every word searchable.

Revolutionary War Records

<http://www.familysearch.com>

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Or the pilot project: <http://pilot.familysearch.org/recordsearch/start.html#p=0>

<http://www.rootsweb.com>

Message boards, social security death index, many databases

<http://www.usgenweb.org>

Select a state and see what they offer. Some states have great volunteers and a lot of information. Cemetery records, pictures, local histories and much more.

<http://www.ingenweb.org/injennings/>

This is for Jennings County, Ind. They are listing our website as a reference on theirs.

Some sites require a paid subscription:

<http://www.ancestry.com>

Has very large collection of databases as well as digital images of the US census records.

<http://www.genealogy.com>

Similar to ancestry.com

<http://www.NewEnglandAncestors.org>

Many databases. Several levels of membership with different benefits.

AND DON'T FORGET THE INTERNET SEARCH ENGINES LIKE "GOOGLE"

You never know what you might find. Could be a will or marriage record or obituary.

Use quotes around your search words and narrow down the hits.

For instance "bartholomew vawter" + virginia

Or "richard vawter" + marriage